

Diane C. Glarrow, AIA

Senior Project Manager

Ms. Glarrow currently serves as a Senior Project Manager in CDI/L.R. Kimball's A/E Division. She has more than 35 years of experience in the design and project management of many different types of architectural projects including judicial, municipal, office, commercial, manufacturing, hotel, healthcare, and educational facilities. These projects involved both new construction and renovations to existing facilities.

Ms. Glarrow was the project manager for the Hyatt Hotel and Conference Center which was a $31,000,000 fast-track project located at the Pittsburgh International Airport. She was responsible for all phases of the architectural process from conceptual design through construction supervision and she also coordinated the project with a number of consultants. Ms. Glarrow was also the project manager for a number of justice facilities and a new $35,000,000 junior/senior high school located in Johnstown, PA. Prior to joining CDI/L.R. Kimball, Ms. Glarrow's project experience included the renovation of the William Penn Hotel, a historic landmark in Pittsburgh, PA, which included renovations of the main lobby, restaurants, guest rooms, kitchens, meeting rooms, and electrical and life safety systems.
